| Notes   | Stayed in Victoria Lee's Maritime accommodation. Slightly too small to comfortably house 11 people due to bed/floor space issues. Obviously Miss Lee's boat is not commercial accommodation and so alternative accommodation will have to be found.   |  |
| Launch Site(incl cost & nearest coastguard)                 | Brighton Marina. Intended to dive from the hardboat Brighton Diver. Skipper was Paul Dyer (BSAC AD). Very friendly, returned £ 100 deposit promptly when weather prevented dives.http://www.brightondiver.com£ 450 for weekend based on 4 dives per diver for 12 divers about £38 per diver. |  |

| Brief description: | Donuts were great. Played on the dolphin races, we all lost, disappointing. Thought about the dodgems but everyone seemed uninterested. Nathan demonstrated good control of the coin machine and controlled the arm in a safe way according to BSAC guidelines. |

| General Details   |
| Facilities are good; there is a large ASDA supermarket 5 mins walk from Marina and plenty of shops and restaurants. There is a large 24 hour car parking facility although you have to pay. See link for more info: http://www.brightonmarina.co.uk/ It takes at least 2 hours to get to Brighton from London, expect delays and expect to arrive late if you leave Fir eve. Not many restaurants are open after 10 pm as far as we could tell. |
